NEO PSYCHICO

9 December 2005 at 20.00

NEO PSYCHICO, shown by the artist group hobbypopMUSEUM at the hobbypopMUSEUM in Düsseldorf, is an evocative multimedia-installation including painting, sculpture, sound, film & performance on the occasion of the launching of the exhibition catalogue Echo that documents their Athens show at the Deste Foundation (January 2005).

HobbypopMUSEUM recall the situation of their three-week-stay at the Semiramis Hotel in Athens, while they were producing their show Echo, by building a setting inspired by the interior of the hotel, originally designed by Karim Rashid.

They are also transforming artworks by Jeff Koons which were located at the Semiramis during that time.

A performance will take place during the opening on December 9th: students of the Düsseldorf school of Design will move within the setting, being dressed and acting like the hotel staff. Within the installation, the film & sound stream Echo that was created in Athens, will be shown for the first time in Germany.

hobbypopMUSEUM are Sophie von Hellermann, Christian Jendreiko, Matthias Lahme, Dietmar Lutz, André Niebur, Marie-Celine Schäfer.
